

UAE OPENS BORDER WITH QATAR: SAMUDERA LOGISTICS IS READY TO SERVE YOUR BUSINESS

The reopening of land, air and sea borders between the UAE and Qatar is expected to see a surge in businesses between the two nations. The ending of a three-year standoff between Qatar and its immediate neighbours will benefit the economy.

The UAE's decision to resume trade ties with Qatar is seen markedly improving investment prospects between the two countries, with investor optimism rising as stocks gained in both markets.

Lifting of trade and travel restrictions will help better trade, tourism and logistics between both countries, analysts at Standard Chartered evaluated in a note, with both markets set to benefit even further.

For any inquiries, please contact your local Samudera office for information.

samudera.ae

Disclaimer: The subject matter of this newsletter is provided for informational purposes only. All data is obtained from public sources and is believed to be true and accurate. Samudera Logistics DWC LLC is not responsible or liable for any inaccurate information contained herein.